

The Longay Conservatory of Guitar presents...

Robert Miller & Christopher Mallett in recital

An unforgettable recital featuring works by Assad, Bellinati, Mertz, Verdery

Robert Miller has studied with a number of world renowned teachers including Dr. Pablo Cohen of Ithaca College, Raphaella Smits of the Lemmensinstituut, Belgium and Dr. Nicholas Goluses of Eastman.

As a classical guitarist, Mr. Miller has developed a refined and powerful technique and a sophisticated sense of style and artistry. I am sure that he will always pursue the highest levels of artistic expression and guitarism. I am certain that he is one of the most well rounded talents in the country. — Nickolas Goluses

Christopher Mallett is gaining recognition as one of America's promising up and coming classical guitarists whose style has been called "Mesmerizing" by the Oberlin Review.

He has earned a Bachelor's Degree from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music where he studied with Stephen Aron and a Master's Degree from the Yale University School of Music where he studied with Benjamin Verdery on a full-tuition scholarship.

Christopher has played in some of America's finest concert halls and has been awarded several prizes including the Eliot Fisk Prize for "outstanding guitarist" from Yale University.
